

Sale Name: 3/11 Roseburg Auction - World Traveler's Lifetime Collection -
Ethnographic & Indigenous Artifacts, Art, Pottery, Sculptures, Blue & White Porcelain,
Beadwork, Yard Art

LOT 1054 - ELVERA SPIVEY ORIGINAL OIL PAINTING ON LINEN, "ICARUS", DEPICTION OF A NUDE ICARUS IN BURST OF COLOR

Description

Elvera Spivey Original Oil Painting On Linen, "Icarus", Depiction Of A Nude Icarus In Burst Of Color, Signed In Lower Left, Matted And Framed, Image 23X29.5"H, Frame 32X38"H. In Greek Mythology: As They [Daedalus And Icarus] Were Approaching The Island Of Samos, Icarus Turned Arrogant. He Felt An Unconquerable Urge To Fly Towards Heaven, As Close To The Sun As He Could. Ignoring His Father's Warnings, He Flew Higher And Higher, Until The Wax That Held The Wings Together Melted. He Began Falling At Speed He Fell Into The Sea Where He Met His End.

Elvera Spivey, Long-Time San Juan Artist

Condition: Condition Commensurate With Age, Great Condition Overall, See Photos

Estimate: 100-2000

Quantity: 1

<https://www.pacificauctions.net/>